Folly Farm Cottage was once a stable belonging to a village farm, which has sadly long gone. We have restored and extended the thick stone walls to create a large country cottage, offering superb accommodation with all of the charm of a bygone age and the luxury of the most modern facilities.

All the rooms overlook our large sunny cottage garden, brimming with colour all year round and laden with fruit from our fruit trees, which our guests are welcome to enjoy. We are only 7 miles from Stratford-upon-Avon, 4 miles from Chipping Campden and ideally placed for visiting the surrounding Cotswold villages, Warwick, Worcester and the many National Trust properties in the area.

Directions from Stratford-upon-Avon

Follow the A3400 over the bridge out of Stratford for approximately three and a half miles. Turn right on to the road that is signposted to Wimpstone and Ilmington. Follow the road through Wimpstone and continue on to Ilmington village, about 4 miles from the main road. When you see the sign for the village the road bends sharply to the left but take the road straight ahead that is signposted to Mickleton and then turn left after 300 yards. We are the second cottage on the left.

Ilmington is a delightful village nestling at the foot of the Campden hills, surrounded by green fields and is part of the Cotswold Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. This beautiful unspoilt village has old mellow stone cottages with gardens full of old fashioned flowers presenting a variety of wonderful colours. You can stroll round to the local village shop, which overlooks the village green, for your morning newspaper or for an assortment of provisions. The sound of the old church bells can be heard in the distance across the orchards.

The village has two traditional country pubs just a short walk from us with lovely gardens where you can enjoy great food and beer in the warm summer sun. On cold winter nights you can relax in the warm atmosphere with log fires burning to keep you cosy.

Why not take a day off from sightseeing and stroll along the many country footpaths around the village and enjoy the magnificent views across beautiful English countryside, or just relax in our cottage garden. We can assure you of a very pleasant stay where you can relax in the luxury and charm of Folly Farm Cottage.
